

The NAB people killed radio as it was. Now they feel under attack by the satellite radio people who provide the service lost by local radio. PULEEEEEASE!! If they cannot operate in a way that listeners like...at least they should leave alone those who do....we even PAY for this.

I speak as a former radio person (1962-1978) and engineer of once-great FM stations.